

About the Academy

Where dancing hearts are nurtured, and bodies are honed into instruments of strength and beauty.

Viktoria Titova

Under the artistic direction of former Bolshoi ballerina, Viktoria Titova, Emerald Ballet Academy provides a beautiful continuum of instruction to students with pre-professional, recreational and therapeutic goals. EBA's international faculty nurtures each dancer with a broad range of training and support. Dancers have won top honors at YAGP and earned scholarships and acceptance to some of the world's most prestigious academies, including Bolshoi Ballet Academy, Paris Opera Ballet, John Cranko School, School of American Ballet, San Francisco Ballet, and Pacific Northwest Ballet. EBA alumni have pursued professional dance careers, college dance programs, and become lifelong advocates for the arts.

Performance Opportunities

Emerald Ballet Academy is the official school of Emerald Ballet Theatre, a non-profit organization dedicated to advancing the arts through education, performance and outreach. EBA students have the opportunity to perform with EBT and further their dance training by participating in:

- Classical and original ballet productions, including The Nutcracker with EBT Orchestra and professional guest dancers, and a Spring show
- Petite Nutcracker Suite and Spring Fling for youngest dancers
- Festivals and competitions for students who want to take their dancing to the next level
- Teaching Institute for teens with workshops and internships
- Community outreach interactive programming bringing the arts to schools, community centers, and beyond
